PEP MEETINGS ROUSE STUDENTS FROM LETHARGY

Brass Band, Torches, Speeches, and Yells Intended to Awaken College Spirit

"PEERADE" IN CLINTON

Villagers Forcefully Reminded of the "Good Old Days"

Memories of the good old days when college men were college men, were revived in the minds of Clinton's old timers last Thursday night, when practically the entire student body, led by the college band, marched down the Hill with flaming torches to stage a gigantic pep meeting in the Clinton Park.

This sudden outburst of spirit and enthusiasm had its genesis in Mr. Bookhout's stirring speech from the chapel platform last Tuesday morning. Directly after the regular chapel services Mr. Bookhout mounted the platform and commenced his surprising speech, in which he condemned the present lack of college spirit in Hamilton, and urged that immediate steps be taken to remedy this condition.

As a result of this talk a pep meeting was set for Thursday night and a subscription, amounting to approximately 20 cents a man, was taken up by Stone in order to purchase flares for the "peerade." The College Band was organized under the leadership of Ferris, and, with the help of the D. T. Club and Was Los, the final plans were made.

Shortly before 9 o'clock Thursday evening the crowd began to gather in front of the gym, until almost every student within hearing of the bell, was present. After a few cheers and songs, the enthusiasm of the students was raised to such a high pitch that, when the question was put to them, whether to go to Clinton or not, every one shouted assent.

A "peerade" was formed, the torches were lighted and a singing and cheering crowd marched down the Hill to Clinton, staging a demonstration such as has not been seen here for a long time. The enthusiasm of some was pitched so high that one freshman, who had turned his ankle severely, hobbled along in a vain endeavor to keep up with the parade.

News or the sound of the approach must have preceded the crowd, for most of Clinton was out watching. The "peerade" continued down College Street to the Park where a large circle was formed.

The usual cheers were given with Stone, Wylie, Reed, Jenness, Merrit, and Church acting as cheer-leaders. Songs were sung under the direction of Heyl, and accompanied by the

CLASSES ELECT NEW OFFICERS FOR YEAR

Swartwout, Fisher and Knox Head Three Upper Classes

During the past week the three upper classes have wholly or in part elected their new officers for the ensuing year. The seniors have all of their offices filled, the juniors have all but a secretary-treasurer, whereas the sophomores have only a president accounted for.

Henry W. Swartwout of Clinton is the president of the senior class. Last year he was vice-president of his class. He is a member of Alpha Delta Phi fraternity, of Pi Delta Epsilon, and of Pentagon, and is president of the Honor Court.

The vice-presidency of the class of 1927 is occupied by Vincent T. Burns, a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon and also a Clinton resident. "Vin" is a football letter man and a member of Was Los and the D. T. Club. Arthur L. Groff of Rochester, also a Deke, was elected secretary-treasurer by his classmates.

The Juniors elected Robert G. Fisher of Rochester to the presidency of their class. "Bob" is a Deke and a member of the Was Los and D. T. societies. Ernest N. Warren of Carthage, a football man, was elected vice-president. "Ernie" is an Alpha Delt.

Walter E. Knox of New York was elected president of the sophomore class. He earned his letter in baseball last year, playing in the outfield and pitching. He is a member of Theta Delta Chi.

KNOX HALL RESTORED TO ORIGINAL FORM

Administrative Offices Assembled in Rebuilt Building

Knox Hall, recently rechristened Buttrick Hall in honor of its original owners, the birthplace of Senator Root, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the College, has been completely remodeled and is now nearly in shape for housing the administration of the college. Of much interest to Hamilton men, both because of its varied history, and because within its walls was born one of Hamilton's most distinguished sons, Buttrick Hall will now be a handsomely equipped and complete administration building. The extensive alterations which have changed Knox Hall, old Geology Hall, into a modern office building, have also reconstructed, as nearly as possible, the original structure, as erected in 1812-13.

The building as remodelled will consist of three stories. On the first floor there will be two front entrances and one side entrance. The front entrance, which will be generally used, will lead into a waiting room. To the right of this small hall will be the office of the Dean, and to the left the offices of the President, with the President's inner office on the lower left front corner. To the rear of the Dean's office will be situated the office of the Field Secretary, and to the rear of the offices of the President, a stenographer's room.

In the rear of the first floor will be space for the Bursar. His offices can be entered from the waiting hall or from the side entrance. The Bursar's outer office will be fronted by glass and grating, with three windows. The two rear corners of the building will be occupied by private offices for the Bursar and the Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds. The center of the building will be occupied by a large vault, opening on the offices of both the President and the Bursar.

The entire structure will be strictly in keeping, in design and in architecture, with the period whose models it will follow, of about 1812. The big,

SCHEDULE OF WHITING CONCERTS ANNOUNCED

Due to the splendid reception accorded the recitals last year, Hamilton will again have the opportunity of hearing the Arthur Whiting concerts this season. The five recitals given on the Hill during last winter never failed to draw a large and enthusiastic audience of students and visitors. Having in its personnel several of the greatest artists on the concert stage today, this series of concerts is taken to but four other colleges in the country: Yale, Harvard, Princeton, and the Massachuetts Institute of Technology. It is indeed a remarkable privilege for Hamilton to be chosen as one of the colleges to benefit by these concerts.

The Whiting series is secured thru the Carnegie Foundation, under a donation from the late Andrew Carnegie. Arthur Whiting, himself a noted pianist, is in charge of the recitals, and brings with him, five times during the year, artists in different branches of music. Before each recital, Mr. Whiting gives a resume of the numbers to be given during the concert. Last year the college was privileged to hear many of the most noted musicians in the country, and the concerts which will be heard this year will undobutedly be equally as fine.

A list of the artists who will be heard on the Hill this year has not been announced as yet. The dates of the five appearances are as follows: Nov. 15, Jan. 17, Feb. 14, Feb. 28, and March 21. The concerts are held on Monday evenings.

Rochester Bows to Hamilton In First Local Grid Victory

Carroll's Crew Shows Impressive Form Against Old Rivals—Bush Plays Brilliant Offensive and Defensive Game—Winners Chalk Up 15 First Downs While Losers Make Three—Final Score 20-0

Playing the finest brand of football that it has displayed this year, the Buff and Blue defeated Rochester 20-0 here last Saturday. Rochester was outclassed in every department of play, gaining only three first downs against Hamilton's 15. From the kick-off throughout the game Hamilton assumed the offensive. Only once was Rochester close to scoring when Wilson, the Rochester right halfback, caught a pass and ran 50 yards before he was downed on the 10-yard line by Bush.

The work of Bush was the outstanding feature of the game. He gained repeatedly on offense and backed up the line brilliantly on defense. The rest of the backfield also played well. Warren intercepted a short pass on the Buff and Blue 1-yard line and made 35 yards. On another occasion he caught a long pass from Pierce and ran 30 yards before he was forced out on the Rochester 5-yard line. Pierce, who was responsible for two of the three touchdowns, made consistent gains around end but fumbled once on a kick and allowed Rochester to recover the ball on its own 40-yard line. Fletcher, Chatfield, and Martin also played well, but Martin had to be removed in the first quarter and Chatfield in the second on account of injuries.

At no time was Rochester able to make substantial gains through the Hamilton line which presented a strong defense and easily made openings for the backfield during the Buff and Blue attack. Rochester showed no really stellar playing, Capt. Shannon and Wilson doing the best work for the visitors. During the second quarter Hamilton was prevented from scoring when within five yards of the Rochester goal line by the quick action of Wilson who intercepted a pass and carried the ball for 30 yards into safer territory.

In the first quarter after an exchange of punts, Pierce and Martin made repeated gains around both left and right ends until finally Pierce put the ball across for the first touchdown after a successful plunge thru center. The kick for the extra point failed.

There was no scoring during the second or third quarters but Rochester was considerably outplayed during both periods.

In the fourth quarter Bush scored after a 40-yard run. Pierce kicked the goal. Rochester then opened its most serious attack of the game and after a long run for 50 yards by Wilson brought the ball to the Hamilton 1-yard line. An attempt at a pass failed when Warren intercepted the ball and carried it 35 yards. By a series of gains Hamilton took the ball to the other end of the field and Pierce scored within a few minutes of the whistle. The try for point was successful.

FACULTY ENJOYS TRIPS TO CANADA AND EUROPE

Europe and Canada seem to have been the most popular of all the resorts this past summer according to the reports of a number of the professors. No less than five members of the faculty spent their vacations in Europe, visiting France, England, Italy, Spain, Belgium, and Austria while six more spent part of their time touring in Canada.

Professor and Mrs. Fancher returned just a short time before college opened from motoring through Europe. They spent most of their time in Italy and Germany. Professor Patton spent the largest part of his vacation in Germany, while Dr. Wisewell toured France, spending most of his time, however, in Paris.

Professor Ibbotson spent a large part of his vacation touring the eastern part of the United States and Canada. Shorly after the New York State Library Association Convention which he attended at Lake Placid, he motored to Montreal, returning by way of the White Mountains and Boston. In the latter part of the summer he made a trip to North Carolina to visit his son at Duke University.

Coach Carroll was head councillor in Camp Powhatan at Oxford, Me. With him were several men from the Hill who worked under him as councillors. Coach Gelas was occupied during part of the summer as an instructor in swimming at Cornell Universiety. He spent the rest of his vacation in Canada.

Professor Super spent the summer in Spain and France. While in France he spent most of his time in Paris. Professor Rudd had a very enjoyable vacation, spending part of his time in Wyoming. Professor Bachmann toured France, Germany, Belgium and Austria.

Dr. Shepard spent most of his summer at Quebec and the Thousand Islands. Dr. Wood had a very enjoyable summer at Camp Hamilton on Fourth Lake. President Ferry spent part of his vacation at Dart's Camp.

MUSICAL CLUBS START PLANS FOR YEAR'S WORK

Concerts in Utica, Brooklyn, New York, and New London, Conn., with a weekend trip, probably to the western part of the state, comprise the list of the most important appearances of the Musical Clubs as plans stand at present. It is probable that several concerts in small towns nearby will take place in the course of the year.

Tryouts for positions on the Glee Club have been held. The Club is in excellent shape this year, having lost but three voices through graduation. It is expected that the addition of new men from the freshman class, some of whom display much talent, will contribute materially to the success of the organization during the coming season.

The following are those chosen by Leader Whitbeck for places on the Glee Club: 1st bass: Forshay, Wylie, P. Bennett, Gage, R. Browne, Strong, Vermila, Strickland, Callamen, T. Rogers; 2nd bass: A. W. Browne, Groff, Patrick, Jewell, Goodwin, Eddy, Owens, Wiggins, W. Cowdre, Dillenbeck; 1st tenor: Brockway, Donaldson, Lee, Calkins, Chacona, Bilings, Shepherd; 2nd tenor: Dold, Ferris, Graves, Heyl, Montgomery, Chatfield, Van Loon, Stevens, Rogers.

As yet no tryouts have been held by Keith Preston, leader of the Instrumental Club. It is expected that he will send out a call for new men late in November.

In addition to the regular New York trip which is to be made during the Easter recess and which will take the clubs to Brooklyn and New London, there will be a weekend trip coming early in the second semeter, probably to the western part of the state. The Utica concert will take place early in the winter, while an appearance at New York Mills has been arranged, although the date has not been decided upon.

Y. M. C. A. RECEPTION PLANNED FOR OCT. 27

Schedule of Movies, Starting November 20, Announced

With preparations nearly completed for the usual freshman reception, Sunday discussion groups, and the preparation of a series of 14 movies, the Y. M. C. A. has practically finished its plans for the coming year, according to President Arthur Browne. The campaign for membership will probably take place on Nov. 3 and will continue through the week.

The annual freshman reception is being planned for the evening of Oct. 27. As has been the custom in the past, there will be several speakers from the faculty and student body who will endeavor to present the various phases of college life to the new men. The reception should prove of great interest to the freshmen as it will give them an excellent opportunity to become acquainted with the members of their class.

Bible discussion groups for both freshmen and upperclassmen will be held this year, as usual, at the conclusion of the Sunday Chapel. Winton Tolles is in charge of this branch of the work.

Beginning on Nov. 20, and on Saturday nights throughout the winter, movies will be shown in Commons. The pictures this year are all new productions, some of them not having yet been released. Owing to the cost of the better class of pictures which are to be shown there will be an increase in price over that of last year.

The pictures to be shown are as follows:

Fascinating Youth, Nov. 20; Hold That Lion, Nov. 27; The Quarterback, Dec. 4; You'd Be Surprised, Dec. 11; Mantrap, Dec. 18; The Campus Flirt, Jan. 8; Variety, Jan. 15; Fine Manners, Feb. 12; Kid Boots, Feb. 19; Tin Gods, Feb. 26; Let It Rain, Mar. 5; The Headwaiter, Mar. 12; Be Yourself, Mar. 19; The Eagle of the Sea, April 9.

Membership in the Y. M. C. A. will not entitle one to admission to the movies this year, the season ticket to the pictures and the "Y" membership card being sold separately. In addition to this new regulation, the board has decided that the use of the pool table shall be prohibited to nonmembers.

AMHERST ELEVEN NEXT ON HAMILTON SCHEDULE

Comparative scores give Amherst an advantage over Hamilton for the game at Amherst next Saturday. In its opening game the Lord Jeffs defeated Rochester 33-0, which gives them a 13-point margin over the Buff and Blue. The next week Amherst was beaten by Princeton 14-7 in a close and hard-fought contest. Last week Amherst and Bowdoin tied 7-7, both teams showing a stiff attack and determined defense.

These figures show that Hamilton will have a formidable opponent on its hands Saturday. The work done in the Rochester game proves, however, that the Buff and Blue can play good football this year. It is not safe to predict too assuredly what the outcome of the game will be, as comparative scores are often misleading.

If Hamilton displays the same amount of improvement this week that it showed last week, it will have an excellent chance of beating Amherst. The team will suffer through the loss of Chatfield, who will be unable to play for two weeks at least, due to injuries suffered last Saturday. Martin, however, will probably be able to play if necessary, his injuries not having been so serious.

WILLIAMS BEATS BUFF AND BLUE IN SOCCER, 1-0

Neither Team Scores Until Final Period when Home Team Breaks Thru Hamilton Defense

TOLLES STARS

Next Game Scheduled with Syracuse Here Saturday

In the second out of town game of the season the Williams soccer team triumphed over the Hamilton team at Williamstown in a close battle. Neither team was able to score until five minutes before the close of the final period when the home team broke through the Buff and Blue defense to register the winning goal.

The Buff and Blue was slightly outplayed in all departments of the game although its strong defense prevented Williams from making more than two dangerous drives at the goal. The second drive coming late in the game was the one which brought success to the Purple team. On the other hand Hamilton made numerous attacks on the Williams goal, but each time was prevented from forcing the ball between the posts.

The Hamilton forward line was not playing quite up to par. It could not keep the ball after the backs had driven it far into Williams territory. The Williams center halfback, Nightingale, broke up many of the drives through his fine kicks which sent the ball sailing back deep in Hamilton's half of the field.

Tolles played the best game for Hamilton. One of his boots, which seemed certain of scoring, missed the top of the goal by two inches. Captain Forshay featured on the line for Hamilton.

Hamilton's prospects for defeating the Syracuse soccer team on the Hill this coming Saturday are regarded as fair. Last year Syracuse won an exciting game by a margin of two points. The contest will be the first of the season for the invaders.

A crowd of 500 witnessed the game.

SIG AND DEKE DANCES OPEN SOCIAL SEASON

The social season on the Hill was formally opened Saturday afternoon with a tea dance at the Deke House immediately following the Rochester game, and a dance at the Sig Hall in the evening. The Buff and Blue Orchestra furnished the music for both of the parties.

The dances were a fine conclusion to the victory over Rochester on the gridiron. The parties were well attended at both houses, but because of the crowded condition of the ballrooms, the couples often found it difficult to dance.

Following each of the dances, light luncheons were served to the guests. Patronesses at the Deke House were Mrs. H. C. Goodwin, Mrs. Watrous and Mrs. Tuttle. At the Sig Hall the patronesses were Mrs. Edward Root, Mrs. C. K. Chase, and Mrs. Charles B. Rogers.

The new Buff and Blue Orchestra is a great improvement over last year's aggregation. With the addition of several new instruments it ought to take its place with the best of the college orchestras.

The following is a list of the guests at the Deke and Sig Houses: The Misses Molly Sleeper, Dorothy Frank, Gladys Doolittle, Jane Jackson, Helen Goodwin, Julie Chaff, Eleanor Van Atta, Barbara Davidge, Betty Reves, Jean Chase, Elizabeth McManus, Mary Jane Downs, Ella Green, Peggy West, Sylvia Saunders, Barbara and Betsy Stevens, Sue Smythe.

WHO SAID "COLLEGE SPIRIT"?

Beginning with Mr Bookhout's oratorical effusion in Chapel Tuesday morning and ending, we fervently trust, with Thursday night's pep meeting, Hamilton College last week paid tribute to the great god of American higher education, College Spirit.

Just what started the whole affair is still somewhat of a mystery to us. Falling like a bombshell upon the otherwise peaceful chapel of last Tuesday, Mr. Bookhout's speech took us so by surprise that we were unable to take any notes. The gist, however, of his emotional address seemed to be to the effect that something was wrong, that the undergraduates were "logey", that "that team", having already "had the spots knocked off it," and no longer playing for "newspaper praise", was not being backed by the students. Specifically, the undergraduates had permitted "that team" to depart for its game with St. Lawrence without a single student's being on hand to give it a send-off.

To start at the beginning, there has been no let-down of college spirit, whatever that may be, at Hamilton. Can any group of undergraduates who, at the risk of pneumonia, sat through a veritable cloud-burst to cheer a losing team, be called disloyal to their college? That is exactly what most of the Hamilton students did at the Colgate game.

What, we may pause to ask, is college spirit? Is it, as Mr. Bookhout would lead us to believe, something that will make every undergraduate appear unsummoned at the Gymnasium when a football team is about to leave? Why, the further question may be raised, does college spirit limit itself to football, to the utter exclusion of socced and cross country? Is not a soccer player or a cross country man as human as a football player? Doesn't he want to win just as much and shouldn't he receive just as much encouragement as the gridiron athlete?

There has not, however, been a single cheer given for either the soccer or cross country team at the time of this writing. Even at Thursday night's affair, ostensibly labelled a "pep meeting", there was not a single cheer for the soccer team which was leaving for a game with Williams the following morning. For some reason or other, college spirit seems to ignore minor sports.

College spirit cannot be forced down the throats of unwilling underclassmen. Nor can it be engendered in the hearts of upperclassmen by oratory and a brass band. Fifty dollars worth of fireworks and a parade into Clinton proved alike ineffectual in creating college spirit, although some of the antics of the students during this parade proved that at times the difference between a college man at a pep meeting and a small boy on a Hallowe'en party is microscopic.

In the general order of things a team at Hamilton will get about as much support as it deserves. There have been mighty few pep meetings for the hockey team, yet practically every student attends the games under weather condtions that are far more severe than those prevalent at the average football game. But no one was ever worried by the lack of college spirit at a hockey game.

On a strictly rational basis there is no more reason for an undergraduate to go out on the field and yell for a team than there is for him to stand outside the Hall of Languages and yell for a student who is making a Greek recitation. Not as much, perhaps. But be that as it may. College spirit must be spontaneous and it should be unostentatious. To even the men who organized last Thursday's fiasco it should be evident by now that college spirit consists of something more than burning torches, parades to Clinton, and long yells for "that team".

THE INFIRMARY AT LAST

About six years ago Hamilton Life started agitation for a college infirmary. Last week it was announced that the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees had approved plans for a definite infirmary program which will go into effect this year.

Under the present plans each man pays ten dollars a year, thereby entitling himself to a week's infirmary service. This service includes laundry, physician, and nurse, while a rebate for meals will be allowed to all men eating regularly in Commons.

The advantages of the new infirmary regulations are obvious. The college physician can now order any undergraduate who needs special care to go to the Infirmary without worrying about the financial cost entailed. A contagious epidemic can be stopped before it becomes serious. The entire program should work out for the benefit of Hamilton. With the building up of a small reserve fund, it is hoped that the present infirmary tax will be reduced even further.

To the committee which worked so hard and capably in making the present arrangements, too much praise cannot be given. Hamilton Life itself takes no small pride in having first pointed out the need for an infirmary and then continuing to keep that need before the alumni and undergraduates until action was finally taken.

CHASE, RHODES SCHOLAR, BEGINS WORK AT OXFORD

According to the latest reports, John W. Chase, '26, who was appointed Rhodes Scholar from New York State at the annual examination of candidates for the Rhodes Scholarship held last winter, arrived at London two weeks ago on the Tuscania and is now spending his time visiting and sight-seeing in the great metropolis before leaving for Oxford, whose fall term opens in a few days. Chase will study literature and will live at Merton College.

Chase is the fourth Hamilton man to win a Rhodes Scholaship. He was selected from an original field of 400 candidates from the leading colleges and universities of New York State, each of whom was recommended by the faculty of his college. Seventeen were chosen from this number and sent to New York to compete in an oral examination. Two men are selected every three years from each state. The Rhodes Scholarship carries with in an annual stipend of 400 pounds for three years' study at Oxford.

Chase was prominent in extra-curricular activities while at college, being editor-in-chief of Hamilton Life, editor of the 1926 Hamiltonian, president of the local chapter of Pi Delta Epsilon, captain of tennis, and a halfback on the soccer team. He also won many scholastic honors, being a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

Chase is the son of Dr. Cleveland K. Chase of Hamilton College.

NUMEROUS LIBRARY CHANGES PLANNED

Plans for the improvement of certain features of the Library which were not realized this summer are about to materialize. Decoration, renovation, additions and improvements have a part in the program which it is hoped will be finished shortly. The most radical of this plans calls for the removal of the portraits now on the top floor of the building and the division of the large gallery that contains them into three rooms. One will be used for an art room, another for books containing information on art and archeology. The third wlil be utilized for the localization of the rare volumes and manuscripts that at present are found in many different parts of the building. It is expected that most of the portraits will be temporarily placed in storage. Some, however, will be hung in Knox Hall and others in various rooms throughout the Library.

The present art room will be utilized as an English or German room. The room directly above Dr. Ferry's and at present containing office supplies, will be vacated upon the completion of Knox Hall. It will then be used as a place for holding seminars, probably in Economics.

Among the less noticeable but equally important improvements will be the installation of several shelves relating to some particular field, current or general, that will be of great interest to the entire college body. This scheme has been projected for several years but this year will mark its permanent addition to the Library. The first case of books will especially pertain to men wishing to start a private collection. Although selected for those who care about this subject, these books will be found interesting and instructive to all.

The second hand book shop will be discontinued to make room for the books on Music and its various phases. There are still many interesting volumes at attractively low rates which may be purchased by men who are interested in the courses that they may cover.

PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES SCHOLARSHIP HONORS

President Ferry announced the scholarship honors for last year in chapel last Tuesday morning. The first five men to be elected to Phi Beta Kappa from the class of 1927 are: Arthur W. Browne of Ithaca; Clifford M. Crist of Montgomery; Norris H. Hoyt of Middleport; D. Malcolm Mc Martin of Johnstown; and George G. Tyler of Bellaire, Ohio.

The John W. Vrooman Prize Scholarship in Greek was awarded to Samuel A. Ives.

The scholastic standings for 1925-26 are:

Class of 1927

High Honor: Browne, Crist, Hoyt.

Honor: Belden, Britten, Fineour, King, McMartin, Swartwout, G. Tyler.

Credit: Amos, Bald, Capron, Forshay, Goodwin, Hinke, Hirshheimer, Lyons, Marquardt, Osborne, Picard, Thomas, Wakerly, Whitbeck, Wyman.

PROF. FANCHER SELECTS NEW MEMBERS FOR CHOIR

As a result of the recent try-outs, the following new men have been selected for the College Choir:

1st tenor: Bailey, Billings, Denny, Hulder and Law of the class of '30.

2nd tenor: Chatfield, '29; Burnham, T. Rogers, Shepherd, Van Loon, '30.

1st bass: G. Bowers, Elliott, Jarrett, McDonald, E. D. Webster, F. Williams, '30.

2nd bass: Kinsey and Morris, '30.

Professor Fancher, director of the choir, states that while many requests have been received from different cities which desire concerts, nothing definite has been decided concerning the list of concerts for the year. The choir has won for itself such a splendid reputation that many cities are anxious to hear it this year. Much new talent has been discovered in the freshman class, and Professor Fancher anticipates a season as successful as have been the years past.

Dear Carp:

In re Pep Meetings, what has happene to the college fire siren? I have missed its familiar squeal during my visit on our Hilltop.

In my day there was real College Spirit. Why, in no more than a whistle or two the whole College Body would be out, rain, shine, or shale, ready to do their best for Carissima, and no questions asked. As for Euthusiasm, Pep, and Punch! To listen to those 400 united voices, you'd think you were at a Rotary Club. We used to get out for things.

It is indeed regrettable that this fine old tradition has now become but a college spectre, even as Spring Row and "We're out for Gore."

A SOLUTION

In last week's Life, Carpe noticed with great and still growing concern that there are "TOO MANY FRESHMEN." Why not use a quota system somewhat similar to that governing our immigration today. Here are a few possible limits, based on the condition of undergraduates today.

Utica 0
Sweden .....(Quota filled until Belden graduates).
Middlesex 99 1-3
Femalesex 460
Hoboken ....(Quota permanently filled because of Bachmann misfortune)

COLLEGE STORE SHOWS NET PROFIT OF $800

Average Student Spends $80 Per Year in Store

Financial reports for the season Sept. 8, 1925 to July 1, 1926 show that the College Store had an $8000 business increase which made it possible to reduce the debt of the store $2,000. Figures show that the average purchase of each student in the college was approximately $80 last year.

It is planned that when the store has paid off all its debts, which will probably take from two to three years, the profits will be turned over to the General Association. When this becomes possible, one of two things will happen, either the Undergraduate Tax will be reduced or the equipment of the various teams representing the college will be increased. In either case, the students will get the benefit of the profit of the store.

The following is the financial statement of the College Store from Sept. 1, 1925 to July 1, 1926:

Make the Grade with a Remington Portable

You can't get away from the fact that neatly typewritten reports and theses get better attention from the profs, and very often mean better marks.

The Remington Portable weighs only 8½ pounds, net.

It is the smallest, lightest, and most compact portable with standard keyboard. The machine can be tucked away in a drawer when not in use, for the case is only four inches high.

This handy helper, which takes all the drudgery out of college work, can be bought for as little as $10 down and $5 monthly.

CHARLATANS TO GIVE PLAYS AT HOUSE PARTY

Three one-act plays to be presented the week-end of house party, Oct. 22 and 23, will inaugurate the Charlatans' activities this year. According to President Goodwin, the plays to be given here have not as yet been definitely selected. The announcement of the selections will be made shortly and the tryouts will then be held within a week. Every freshman is urged to try out regardless of whether or not he has had previous dramatic experience.

Professor Fancher, who has been so largely responsible for many of the former successes of the Charlatans, will again act as dramatic coach and advisor. No attempt will be made to start work on a three act play until the second term. It is hoped, however, that in addition to their regular performances on the Hill they will be able to take this year's production on a four or five days' trip about Easter time.

NEW DORMITORY NORTH ANNEX IS ESTABLISHED

Due to the greatly increased enrollment this fall and the correspondingly great problem of providing rooms for all of the incoming freshmen, the old North homestead has been turned into a dormitory known as North Annex. At the present time there are about 12 or 13 members of the class of 1930 living in this new dormitory.

For some time this building had been rented to one of the college employees. However, it beame evident that unless the college had more room it was going to have a housing problem on its hands this fall. At this time the house was remodeled and fitted out to accommodate some of the new students. At the beginning of the term there were about 16 men living in the Annex. Due to fraternity pledging, however, this number has been reduced to 12 and may be reduced still further.

Although North Annex is only a temporary dormitory it will be in use as long as there is any need for it.

—Deming S. Payne, '26, is attending Columbia University Medical School in New York.

LIFE ESTABLISHES NEW PLAN FOR DISTRIBUTION

In the delivery of each paper to each subscriber's room, the business staff of Life has arranged a new system of distributing the college paper, which, it is hoped will add greatly to the satisfaction of the subscribers and the efficiency of the paper in general.

In former years Life was delivered at the fraternity houses for fraternity men and at Commons for neutrals. Under this system it often happened that many of the neutral patronizers failed to receive their copies.

With the renovation of the system it is hoped that this uncertainty on the part of the subscribers will be removed. This year each copy of Life will be delivered to each man in his dormitory room or other place of abode. Copies going to fraternity men will be left at the fraternity house the same as before.

band. After an admonition had been given not to do any damage, Carissima was sung, and the crowd broke up.

Some of the students dashed into Hogan's to cool their ardor. Others started out to see what they could find. This didn't take long, for a roll of telephone cable was soon on its way to the Hill, despite the opposition of two Brownies and a Ford. The students won.

All loose signs and some that were not loose were taken up the Hill to decorate the Chapel, but all to no purpose, for Mr. Burton and his cohorts had removed them before morning chapel.

—Daniel R. Jennings, '21, died of pneumonia Oct. 3 at San Diego, Cal. Mr. Jennings was residing at Los Angeles but had gone to San Diego on business and was taken ill while in that city. He was born in Oneonta in 1900, was graduated from that high school in 1917 and from Hamilton in 1921. He was a member of Theta Delta Chi fraternity.

HARRIERS MEET UNION TEAM HERE WEDNESDAY

Wednesday the cross country team engages Union in the first dual meet of the season here Oct. 13. In the trial race which was held last Friday to determine which members of the squad would enter the field for Hamilton, six men all came in together. They were Ahner, S. Baker, C. R. Clark, E. Clark, G. Clark, and Vosburgh. A seventh man will also be chosen shortly from the others who ran. The team is shaping out in much better form than last year. Most of the squad is back showing great improvement over their former running. Several freshmen are out for the squad and it is hoped that under Coach Gelas's training these men will rapidly round into form.

The team is exceptionally well balanced and although there is no outstanding star, there is every chance of its turning in a creditable record for the year's work.

GEOLOGY I CLASS GOES ON FIRST FIELD TRIP

Approximately 60 men who are taking the course in Geology I went on the first field trip of the year last Wednesday under the personal direction of Dr. Dale. Their objective was Prospect Hill, located about four or five miles to the north of the campus.

The group of hikers, outfitted in heavy walking shoes and their oldest clothes, and equipped with sacks and hammers, departed from the Geology-Biology Building at 1 o'clock.

In addition to stops at the College Reservoir and the ninth tee, several others were made before reaching Prospect Hill, a government topographical station. From here the trip back to the Hill was begun and completed after one more station had been visited.

Bad weather threatened to postpone the field trip, but the men braved the elements and made the trip in schedule time. Several more trips will be made within the next few weeks to Syracuse and Trenton Falls.

BAD WEATHER CHECKS FALL TENNIS TOURNEY

Due to the extremely bad weather conditions which as usual held up the fall tennis tournament, only nine of the 18 matches scheduled for the first round of the tourney have been played so far.

The results of the first round are: Savercool defeated Snyder 6-2, 6-4; Sarles defeated Warfield 4-6, 7-5, 10-8; Chase defeated Eddy 6-1, 6-1; Camph defeated Fitzgerald 9-7, 6-2; Oelheim defeated Mulligan 3-6, 6-2, 6-4; Jenks defeated Huested 6-1, 6-0; R. E. Duell defaulted to Hollandt; Tolles defeated Kavakos 6-4, 6-4; S. Baker defeated Law 6-4, 1-6, 7-5; Weston defeated P. J. Bauer 6-2, 6-3.

winding staircase in the center of the building leads above to a very attractive meeting hall, which will serve as the Trustees' Room. Over the front of the structure is space for storage. In the basement will be wash rooms, lavatories, and a rest room, as well as much storage space.

The plan of interior decoration and the furnishings throughout the building will conform to the period, the style of which the building has been designed to follow. Woodwork and walls have been finished with an extemely delicate and attractive shade of ivory tinting. The flooring is of hard oak, with the old-fashioned wide boards. The windows are large and pleasant, affording plenty of light. As as been mentioned, the winding staircase is of the old broad type.

The furniture, in keeping with the general plan, will be of the Franklin period throughout. In the waiting hall will be a ten-legged settle, two Windsor high-back chairs and four Windsor side chair. The Dean's office will be furnished in quartered oak, and that of the Field Secretary, in mahogany. The President's outer office will have the same furniture which is used in the present office. Two Oriental rugs, a mahogany desk and chairs will furnish the inner office of the President. In the small room for the stenographer, will be oak chairs, and the desk which the President now uses.

One of the most attractive features of the new building will be the Trustees' Room on the second floor. This is a good-sized room, finished like the rest of the rooms, with an arched roof, set about with electric candles of an attractive design. The furniture has been designed and made to conform to the period, by the Bacon Company of Boston. The chairs, of the Benjamin Franklin type, will be upholstered in blue leather over mahogany. The main table, 5 feet by 25 feet, will be able to be enlarged by placing another smaller table, five by five, alongside it.

The annual reception for the members of the freshman class was held at Dr. Ferry's home last Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Dr. and Mrs. Ferry and a number of the faculty and their wives welcomed the members of the class of 1930.

HAVE A CAMEL

Camels add the charm of living

WHETHER through the tasks of every day, or in life's moments of crisis and great reward, the comfort and understanding of Camel cheers us on our way. For no other cigarette was ever so friendly, so loyal as Camel. The unfathomed goodness, the deep underlying quality of Camel tobaccos is ever-dependable.

The world's largest tobacco organization buys the best of everything for Camels. The choicest Turkish and Domestic tobaccos grown. The kind of blending that only such a group of experts could give. Regardless of what you are willing to pay, there is no other cigarette like Camel; there can be no better cigarette made than Camels. Camels never tire the taste, no matter how indefatigably you smoke them, never leave a cigaretty after-taste.

If you don't yet know Camel enjoyment, just sample the most exquisite fragrance that ever came from a cigarette. Have a Camel!
